BUSINESS Education.

Shorthand,
Typewriting,
Esperanto, and Business Methods.

MR HIGGIE'S CLASSES FOR PRACTICAL INSTRUCTION are conducted during the two Winter Quarters---October till December and January till March.

Shorthand will continue to be taught with a view to its subsequent usefulness in Business and Professionally.

In Typewriting special attention will be devoted to Punctuation and Capitalisation, a thorough knowledge of which is absolutely necessary in Practical Printing, and cannot longer be neglected by those aspiring to be First-Class Typists.

Esperanto.—This wonderful International Language is already used for Business and Pleasure in all parts of the world. Mr HIGGIE, being an official of the Universal Esperanto Association, is in touch with important regions all over the world, and regularly corresponds with persons everywhere---notwithstanding their different national languages.

During 1913 there are about forty KONGRESOJ INTERNACIAJ for the advancement of Science, Commerce, or Pleasure, and ESPERANTO is being proved to be the only open sesame for universal communication and complete mutual understanding. It is found to be very, very much easier, and eminently satisfactory, for each participant to learn this one neutral language in addition to his or her own than to listen to incomprehensible and weary translations of several foreign languages in the hope that some known one may be heard. The "good time coming" is at hand, and the lingual barriers need no longer be in the way to prevent it.

Business Methods.—Instruction given in other Up-to-Date Business Methods. Advertisement Writing is a Present Day Enviable Profession, and the ground-work and minutæa have long been familiar to a practical Printer like Mr Higgie.

Messrs HIGGIE & COY.'S ESPERANTO PUBLICATIONS are known, read and appreciated throughout the whole civilised world. Many of the contributions are written by up-to-date foreigners.

This attempt to keep the flag flying of Pitman's Phonetic Longhand is Printed and Published in Commemoration of the Inventor of the most popular system of Shorthand Writing the world has ever seen, which owes its success to its being founded on

THE CENTENARY OF SIR ISAAC PITMAN,

A New and The Most Perfect Alphabet ever devised;

In the fond hope that the Public will yet acknowledge and adopt

THIS EXTENDED ROMAN LONGHAND ALPHABET,

also containing a distinct letter for each distinct sound, so that the English Language can be written as pronounced.

I respectfully dedicate this booklet to the Pitman Shorthand Disciples throughout the world, in the hope that they will be ready and willing to demonstrate the ease and precision which the Pitman Alphabet has made communication possible.

PITMAN'S SHORTHAND and LONGHAND

ARE TWINS—

the former is light and airy to suit the necessities of the expert, while the latter it suited to the ordinary mortals on earth.

PREFACE TO 1913-14 EDITION.

WE have again diligently and carefully collected and arranged useful information regarding Buteshire as it is to-day—with its officials, householders, and business people—and once again have pleasure in giving the compilation the honours of the Press.

The previous four sections of the Directory are continued, and to facilitate the search for information the different portions are again printed on distinctively coloured papers—a feature of acknowledged benefit for expeditious reference.

As our Advertising friends appreciate the distribution of their announcements facing the ordinary reading matter, we hope, with continual prompt receipt of orders, to be enabled to make permanent this decided benefit.

Our desire is to overlook no interest, and therefore, we respectfully solicit notices of alterations or additions as early as possible, so that these may be given effect to.

This Directory is a much more important publication than many imagine. It is not only at hand for reference at all times throughout the county, but it is also ready for reference in the libraries of Glasgow, Edinburgh, London, Dublin, Cambridge, Oxford, &c., and in numerous business houses and agencies in busy centres throughout the kingdom—so we are particularly anxious that nothing of benefit to Buteshire be omitted, but that all interests have a good show, and everything be brought thoroughly up to date.

Our best thanks are again accorded to those who have in any way helped us in this compilation. It takes long and careful vigilance to ascertain and give effect to the continual changes, and prompt information and orders are, consequently, particularly acceptable and valuable.

HIGGIE & CO., PUBLISHERS.

OFFICIALS.

COUNTY OF BUTE.

THE COUNTY OF BUTE comprises the seven islands in the Firth of Clyde, viz.:—BUTE, the most populous; ARRAN, the largest; the GREAT and LITTLE CUMBRAES, off the Ayrshire Coast; HOLY ISLE and PLADDA, off Arran; and INCHMARNOCK, off Bute.

The total AREA OF THE COUNTY (land and water, exclusive of tidal water) is 139,658 acres, of which 53,510 are mountain and heath lands used for grazing. 3,806 acres are under plantations, and 794 are covered with water There are 25,981 acres under all kinds of crops, bare fallow and grass, which is a gradual inroad on the mountain heath and hitherto uncultivated land.

The principal INDUSTRIES are agriculture, horticulture, and fishing The islands possess great and varied natural attractions, and are in the forefront as holiday resorts.

The Population of the COUNTY (including its Burghs of ROTHESAY and MILLPORT) in 1801 was 11,791; 1831, 14,151; 1861, 16,331; 1881, 17,657. In 1891 it was 18,248 (8,057 males and 10,197 females); and in 1901, 18,786 (8,412 males and 10,374 females)—being an increase of 255 in the ten years—2·1 per cent There were 4,270 inhabited houses in the islands.

For 1911, the figures were as follows:---

	Males.	Females.	Total.	Revised total.
Arran - - -	2,169	2,402	4,571	4,628*
Bute (including Rothesay)	5,081	6,781	11,799	11,851
Cumbrae - - -	704	992	1,696	1,707

*The increased total issued in the Quarterly Return of the Registrar-General compared with the returns lodged with the Sheriff-Clerk, may be accounted for by the enumeration of the shipping.

The decreases since 1901 are as follows: Arran, 209; Bute, 330; Cumbrae, 62—total, 601.

Parish of North Bute.

THIS is the northern portion of the island of Bute. Port-Bannatyne, its principal village, is two and a-half miles from Rothesay, with which it is connected by tramway. Kames Castle, in the vicinity, is said to be the oldest inhabited castle in the country, and was the ancient seat of the Bannatynes. The village was named after that family—two brothers of whom (John and Gilbert)—received a charter from King Robert the Bruce, for services rendered at Bannockburn.

At the last census, the parish contained 449 males and 518 females, total, 1718—being a decrease of 88 since 1901, which was an increase of 150 over 1891.

NATIONAL & INTERNATIONAL PUBLICATIONS.

BONNIE SCOTLAND'S RESORTS.

A "winsome little volume" of 150 pages of concisely-printed, succinct and interesting descriptions (in English), of between 400 and 500 Health, Profit and Pleasure Resorts, besides attractive introductory and appended pages. We hope soon to launch a more comprehensive publication, as here indicated.

IS ESPERANTO WORTH LEARNING ?

A clever booklet by Bernard Long, B.A., Camb. Marvellous value. It shows the utility, simplicity, and steady progress of this one united universal auxiliary language throughout the world, where all people that on earth do dwell may (and many actually now do) intelligently speak and write to each other, though not knowing a word of each other s language. Printed in English, price 1d, 2d, and 5 cents ; postage. ½d. A reduction for quantities.

Price ½d each ; five post free for international postal coupon.

LA SKOTO ALILANDE.

The Bute County Directory

is the only Publication of the kind printed and published in Buteshire. Its data is carefully compiled, and much time and attention is devoted each year to the careful investigation and noting of the necessary alterations in the personnel of the occupants of public offices, the correct addresses of the general inhabitants, and the latest changes amongst those engaged in trade.

The earliest publications connected with Rothesay were Directories, and they are interesting reading even at this time of day.

Our publication not only includes Rothesay, but embraces the whole County of Bute, and though it has increased in usefulness and circulation, its price and advertisement tariff have remained the same.

J. CURRIE,

Grocer, Bookseller, Stationer, & Newsagent,

POST OFFICE.

In Part III of our Directory, we do not aim at printing such complete lists of Householders as will be found in the official Voters' Roll, published two or three months hence. While, however, we miss several names of the hundreds of persons whose houses are closed during the Winter months, we print those new ones which will not appear in the Voters' Roll until they have tenanted their houses for more than a year.

Bonnie Scotland's Resorts

(Prices—2d, 6d and 1s. Foreign payment by International Coupons, Postal Orders, or Esperanto Checkbank.)

THIS "DAINTY LITERARY DISH" and "REALLY INTERNATIONAL PUBLICATION" was conceived by a genial Scot while sojourning abroad, was written and printed on his return, and has been highly appreciated wherever seen.

The Introductory Pages

(which have been translated into Esperanto, and had the distinction of having been the first national guide-book in the international language) —gives succinct descriptions of the country with regard to its

Situation	Rivers	National Emblems	Science	Sport
Extent	Climate	Language	Art	Dress
Appearance	Antiquities	Religion	Music	Light and heat
Mountains	Soil	Government	Banking	Communications
Islands	Productions	Industries	Postal	Expenses of travel
Lochs	People	Literature	The Sabbath	Accommodation

In the text of the book there are interesting descriptions of over

450 RESORTS,

giving their distinctive features, historical associations, names of famous persons connected with them, modern achievements and present means of communication, and indicating where

HEALTH, PROFIT AND PLEASURE MAY BE THE RESULT of a personal acquaintance: while those places which contribute advertisements, have special headings over such, showing railway distances and fares from large business centres.

The Appendix

is of a particularly interesting character. It contains incidents in the lives of Scots at home and abroad, with humorous and instructive morals.

SONG AND STORY AT HOME AND ABROAD

give numerous specimens of the national sentiment, and that, flourishing amid strange surroundings, has given rise to the paradox that the Scot is never at home until he is abroad (!)

The book closes with two pages of USEFUL HINTS for those on holiday.

Anticipating appreciation beyond the English language, we translated the introductory pages of this publication into the neutral international language, Esperanto, and that was not only highly and universally appreciated, but had the distinction of being the first Guide-Book printed in the new language, which is understood and used in every civilised country in the world. "Scotland for ever!"

"Bonnie Scotland's Resorts" is its own interpreter.

It is a most appropriate present to send not only to prospective Summer visitors, but also to friends abroad.

It is peculiarly appropriate as a Christmas present.

Orders and enquiries should be addressed to Mr HIGGIE, Rothesay.

THE BUTE COUNTY DIRECTORY.

This DIRECTORY now-a-days contains the information distinctive of both the DIRECTORY and the ALMANAC of past years, and the date of its issue is gradually becoming midway between the original dates of issue of these two publications. We begin our researches early enough, but the airy Summer publications must hustle out while the sun shines. The DIRECTORY, although very useful to the fluctuating visiting population, is not necessarily a fine-weather publication, but a hardy permanent resident.

Our aim, in this publication, is not to record the passing names and achievements of visitors and those who come to cater for them, but something of far greater importance—the registering of the names, standing, and businesses of the resident population—for the information of all having an interest in Buteshire, its burghs and rural districts.

The Directory is, of course, not only for the remaining portion of the year in which it is issued, but continues the only printed reference book for the county of Bute until its successor appears.

One edition of the Directory is no sooner off than we begin to note alterations (and prepare for probable additions) for the next—so that it may be thoroughly up to date. These alterations and probable additions lie at our office, and are at the service of our customers.

Will Secretaries of societies, etc., connected with Buteshire, who do not already do so, please remember to forward to us particulars of their institutions, annual reports, and lists of office-bearers, as information for the next issue of the Directory?

We are not yet enabled to publish all the information that we desire, but that does not prevent us compiling (in anticipation of greater reciprocity) more than we at present print.

This Directory is not only found all over Buteshire, but in the libraries and other places of public resort in "the adjacent islands of Great Britain and Ireland."

HIGGIE & CO.

22 Bridge Street, Rothesay,
June, 1913.

THE BUTE COUNTY DIRECTORY.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"It is splendidly compiled."—Campbeltown Courier.

"Being invaluable, it should have a large circulation."—Argyllshire Advertiser.

"Contains a large amount of information carefully revised to date."—Glasgow. Herald

The Directory is indispensible to business people in the county."—Rothesay Express.

"Useful local annual. A useful book of this kind is a convenience that no busy trader can afford to be without.'—Buteman.

"The Bute County Directory being now a long-established publication, it is well-known to those interested."—Rothesay Chronicle.

"Every little parish has its own pages in the book. It contains much general information relating to the County of Bute. It is well worth the price—one shilling."—Ardrossan Herald.

"Will be found invalnable to those having any connection with Rothesay; and as for the many visitors who are attracted to the island, they could scarcely get on without it."—Greenock Herald.

"If the importance of a place is to be judged from the local directory, as claimed, then the County of Bute in general, and Rothesay in particular, must be said to occupy a high plane."—Evening Times.

"The Directory should be indispensible to residents in the County of Bute, and all who have official or business relations with it. It is really a valuable volume for the inhabitants of the Connty of Bute."—Largs and Millport Weekly News.

"Indeed in this book is to be found all the information which the most inquiring person requires to know about the county. The matter is well arranged. Such a book is a necessary part of the equipment of every office which does bnsiness with islands whose interests are so closely associated with those of Glasgow."—Evening Times.

———o———

Besides the opinions of the Press we have received spontaneous testimony of the usefulness of the Directory—from professional and business gentlemen and pleasure-seekers, not only in the county but beyond it.

A Rothesay public official wrote:—"The Bute County Directory has many times proved most valuable when visitors have come to me inquiring for the addresses of their Rothesay friends. In fact, we could hardly do without it."

An Arran postmaster wrote:—"I am much obliged for your courtesy in sending me the Bute County Directory, but do not think it reasonable that I should have all the benefit of the information you have compiled with so much care and expense entirely free of expense, so I take the liberty of enclosing postal order for 1s 4d for cost and postage.
